ON AVERAGE...

20,000 children escaped domestic violence and sought sanctuary in a Women's Aid Refuge every year. Each year, over 4,000 of these children will eventually be relocated to a new home in an unfamiliar area and KidsOut provides them with a box of brand new toys to help bring stability and fun into their lives when they need it most.

Our fun days service has provide over 56,000 of the most vulnerable children in the UK with a positive experience in the last year alone.

Children across the country are taken on a fun day out to the zoo, a theme park or even the seaside, often for the first time in their lives. Over 20,000 disadvantaged children were taken out on Wednesday 14th June 2023!

KidsOut ensured that every child in refuge at Christmas received a toy box and every family received a fun day out and a £40 food voucher, meaning that children escaping domestic violence were still able to celebrate and enjoy a 'normal Christmas'.
